Introduction

The following thesis is presented as a contribution to the subject of measurement and has especial reference to the field of religious education. Broadly speaking there are three great masses of teaching material in this field: I - that presented thru art, usually pictures; II-that presented thru music - instrumental and vocal; III - that presented thru language. This last occures in two forms - prose and poetry. Each of these masses of teaching material are capable of evaluation from two standpoints; from the standpoint of content, and from that of those exposed to the material. So far as the author is aware there has been no scientific published attempt to evaluate in either respect material I and II. The nearest approach to such an evaluation was the work of a group of experts directed by Dr. Walter S. Athearn in the Indiana Survey under the Inter-church World Movement which worked out a scale for the evaluation of the artistic value of pictures.

The prose portion of material III has been studied from both standpoints. The Educational Department of the Inter-church World Movement made the following study and drew up measures and standards.

"The fitness of the material to appeal strongly to the pupils of the age for which the lesson is intended

a - Fitness of the aim to the age
b - Fitness of the basic material to the age
c - Fitness to the age of the material by means of which the basic material is developed(as the notes or stories used with a selected bible passage.)

Fitness of the material to meet the needs of the pupils as defined by child psychology and by sociology (age levels considered)
Fitness to meet the specific objectives of the particular church (or other group) for which the material was prepared." (The Indiana Survey of Religious Education - p. 114)

"The committee of experts in charge of the curriculum survey projected many lines of investigation the results of which are not now ready for publication. Dr. A. Duncan Yocum, chairman of the curriculum committee, gave a great deal of his time for a period of three years to this important service. Dr. C. C. Peters gave his entire time for six months to investigations which are not included in this report." (supra p 21)

During the survey mentioned above a score-card for measuring the merits of church school textbooks was developed. "This is a 1000 point score-card following the general plan of the score-card for measuring the adequacy of church plants. It was theearnest hope of the writer that this score-card could be applied to the textbooks used in the church schools of Indiana, but funds for this purpose have not been made available. This score-card with its accompanying scales and standards was prepared by Dr. C. C. Peters with the aid of a group of trained investigators."

"Seventeen different scales have been developed to accompany the score-card for measuring the merits of church school textbooks. Some of these scales, notably those applying to lesson plans for various age-groups, will also be of value in measuring the efficiency of teachers". (supra.p. 25)

Investigations have been made from the standpoint of the re-action of the individual also. The published investigations in this field are as follows:

But up to the present there has been no published investigation of the poetry used in Religious Education; especially the hymns, either from the standpoint of the content of material or from that of response. This, then appealed to the author as a field worthy of investigation. Since neither phase of this subject has been studied it was open to him to choose, and he has chosen to attempt a measure ment of content.

In view of the tremendous importance of such a powerful idea-forming and ideal-forming agent as a volumn of hymns becomes one feels that such a volumn ought to have the most careful scientific scrutiny before being presented to the people. It is hoped that the present study may pave the way for such a scientific srutiny.

B

Methods

The Material and its Measurement

Note

In the development of this thesis the author has it clearly in mind that a hymnal is not a textbook. But it is a book containing expressions of variuus kinds that are taken to be facts; and these facts are being promulgated with an insistence rarely, if ever, equaled in the class-room.

Method of Procedure

Problems - Three problems had to be solved before the work of the thesis could begin. The first had to do with how to handle the vast amount of material available. The second concerned the development of a measure by which the material could be evaluated. The third was the selection of a standard of value.

Solutions - The first problem was solved by the selection of an adequate sample thru which the method could be set forth. The official hymnal of the Methodist Episcopal Church was selected. This hymnal contains 717 hymns and covers a wide range.

The second problem was solved by the selection of forty symbols that stand for carefully delimited measures.

The third problem was solved by selecting the approved World Service Program of the Methodist Episcopal Church as a standard of value.

Procedure - It was found that the Methodist hymnal was too bulky to be treated en masse, and it was, therefore, decided to consider it in two sections, and each section under sub-heads. The first section has to do with the various forms of human expression; commands, statements, questions, etc.: and the second section has to do with topics; The God of the Hymnal, The Christ of the Hymnal, etc.

The whole hymnal was very carefully read thru, and the various verses and stanzas were allocated under their appropriate section and under their heads within those sections. This occupied a full year; during the last few months of which the author was released from all heavy responsibility, and gave concentrated effort to the task.

Two methods of checking were then adopted. In the first place every verse of the hymnal wasrecorded by hymn on the margin of a large note-book. Opposite to this was recorded each verse that had been noted and allocated. This revealed the verses that had been overlooked. These then were carefully studied and allocated. But it was found that verse located under one topic also belonged under another topic, and on this account the verses were again checked by the use of The Concordance to the Methodist Hymnal written by Oliver S. Baketel and published by Eaton and Mains, 1907.

This material was then carefully measured,bit by bit,with the measures that had been developed, and the measurements recorded by the symbols. Various cross-checks were used so as to make the measurement as accurate as possible. The sub-totals and the grand totals of these measures were then taken, on the adding machine, where the totals were large, and the charts made out and the conclusions drawn.

The Measures and their Symbols

Thruout this study there has been a constant effort to reduce the personal element to a minimum. The most careful pains have been taken merely to set down just what was found, and the number of times that which was found occured; this being considered to mean the number of times it was emphasized. An emphasis is considered to mean any word, phrase, or sentence, immediately connected with the idea being examined which tends to bring that idea to consciousness, or which tends to focus attention on the idea. The term idea is taken to mean a single statement, command, exhortation, exclamation or question with not more than one adjective or adverb as a modifier, nor more than one limiting or explanatory phrase, clause, or conjunctive sentence; nor more than one reason, result, or purpose set forth. Each additional adjective or adverb as a modifier and each additional limiting or explanatory pharase, clause, or conjunctive sentence, and each additional reason, result or purpose expressed is considered an additional emphasis. This method of procedure makes it possible to measure any hymn or collection of hymns with scientific precision; having in mind, of course, only the teaching content.

In the case of the hymns where only one tune is used, or where more than one tune is used, but all require the same repetition, the repetitions due to the musical score have been considered an additional emphasis.

Each word in apposition is taken as an additional emphasis except when a name for God, heaven or country occurs in the vocative case, or is explanatory of a pronoun; however, when two such words occur together each constotues an emphasis.

The first section was measured by certain sharply defined measures explained below, and the second section was measured by a plain count of the emphases found in the sub-heads of each topic,with the exception of two topics: - The God of the Hymnal and the Christ of the hymnal which were measured also in the manner of the first section.

It was decided to employ four sets of measures for the first section. One set measures the "I"ness and "We"ness of the hymnal versus its"otherness." Another set measures the altruism of the hymnal in cases definitely set forth as over against those emphases where altruism is not thus definitely set forth. A third set measures the emphasis on service to one's fellows as understood in the World Service Program. And a fourth set measures relationships.

It was thot necessary in the first place to get some general idea of the relation between self-centeredness and altruism in the hymnal. The measuring of the personal pronouns was considered the least objectionable method of doing this. It has the advantage of being clear, concise, and free from the necessity of interpretation, which, of course, involves the personal element. To measure these the first set of symbols was selected. This set employs three symbols: alpha prime (⍺′), alpha (⍺), and ek (⍵). Alpha prime is used to measure the number of first person pronouns singular of various cases. Alpha is used to measure the number of first person pronouns plural of various cases. Ek is used to measure the number of second and third person pronouns both singular and plural of various cases, excluding the neuter gender. In each instance the possessive pronoun is included.

It is considered that the pronoun "I" separates the individual from all others, and that the pronoun "We", as the plural of "I", represents groups in the same relation to an individual or other groups as is the "I" in relation to other persons. The first person pronoun plural was taken to refer to the worshiping group except where the content of the verse requires a more inclusive concept.

Our next effort was to find a more specific measure of the relation between the World Service Program and the hymnal. This was done by measuring all the definite references to altruism in the hymnal. These references include altruisms to be shown as well as altruisms being shown or already shown. Altruism is considered under two heads; general and specific. Altruism in general is measured by doe (⍴). Specific altruism is considered under two heads: those instances that have a reward mentioned in connection with them, and those that do not. The former are measured by beta (⍽). The latter are measured either by teen (⍴̃) or char (⍴̊). Teen measures those emphases in which sacrifice is not mentioned and char measures those in sacrifice is mentioned. An instance is considered a specific altruism when some definite act is performed or intended in the interest of another. This act might be a command, a prayer, a desire, a statement, an exhortation, or the rendering of some direct service calculated to enhance the physical, moral, or spiritual welfare of another. All other emphases are measured by gamma.(⍾).

The questio of major interest also arose. Was the major interest of any particular emphasis centered in the Godhead, or in mankind, or in beings other than these. To measure this a third set of symbols was developed. Aht (⍲) measures the interest centering in mankind, nau (⍿) measures that centering in the Godhead, and dass (⍭) measures that centering in other beings.

Service of different kinds is measured by various values of S. S is thus really a more refined measurement of the second group.

The complete set of symbols with their meanings is as follows:-

Group I

Alpha prime ⍺′ measures first person pronouns singular
Alpha ⍺ measures first person pronouns plural
Ek ⍦ measures second and third person pronouns singular and plural.

Group II

Beta ⍽ measures service emohases with which a reward is definitely connected.

Gamma ⍾ measures those emphases in which individuals or groups of individuals perform acts without reference to other human beings, these acts being in the past, present, or future; and actual or intended; and all other emphases measureable by this group, but not measured by beta, doe, or teen.

Doe ⍿ measures altruism actually stated and differs from teen only in being general and not specific.

Teen ⍀ measures altruism actually stated and definite in character, but involving no statement of sacrifice.

Char ⍁ measures altruism as teen does, but is used only when a definite state of sacrifice occurs.

Delta ⍂ was selected to measure those emphases that involved detriment to fellow beings, but since no such emphases were found it is not included on the score sheet.

Group III

Aht ⍲ measures emphases where mankind is the chief interest; individual, as a group, or as a whole.

Nau ⍳ measures emphases where the Godhead is the chief interest: this includes only such ideas as offerings and renderings to God, devotion, worship, confession, service to God, divine control, opposition to God.

Dass • measures those emphases where beings other than those mentioned are the center of interest.

Group IV

S is the basal symbol for this group. Those emphases involving service in which God was expected to be the agent were divided into two groups: those in which man should be a co-agent but in which no such relationship is expressed are measured by an appropriate measure modified by panch (⍱) Those in which man could be expected to be a co-agent were measured by an appropriate measure modified by saht.(⍲) Where a request is made for a service from God which in a sense man may render, and which in another sense only God can render the symbol for each idea is used. Those emphases in which service was recognized, but handed over to another to perform were measured by an appropriate measure modified by chay (ץ)

The following measures were developed in this group.

S ק
S ץ
S ר

SW — service in general, but with a world viewpoint.
SW ק *
SW ץ *
SW ר *

S? — an expression in which the author is the actor and which may possibly abet the World Service program
S ץ ? — as above but another is the actor.

SS — some form of service specified.
SS ק
SS ץ
SS ר

SSL — some form of service specified, but limited in extent
SSL ק
SSL ץ
SSL ר

SSW — Some form of service specified and having a world viewpoint in harmony with the World Service Program; world, all, each, everyone, etc.
SSW ק
SSW ץ
SSW ר

SPI — service possibly implied; to measure such cases as likeness to Jesus or God, following Jesus or God, tracing Jesus' footsteps with the thot of following in them, bearing the cross or sharing Christ's yoke where the context clearly connotes service and not merely suffering as such, and love to fellowmen.

SG — service to God: to measure such cases as service or devotion expressed to God including the Christ, but not particularized

OGW — obedient to God's will: measures the emphases under this head when the context refers to service in the interest of our fellowmen.

The commands and exhortations present a special problem. They may be viewed both from the standpoint of the command or of the exhortation on the one hand; or from the standpoint of what is commanded or exhorted. Both have been measured. SS and SSW have been used to measure the commands and exhortations as a form of service when what was commanded or exhorted concerned the personal advantage of the second party. Personal advantage here is taken to mean comfort in loss, defeat, or sorrow; encouragement to struggle and advance; acceptance of the benefits conferred by Christ as set forth in the Scriptures; and right attitude toward God as set forth in the hymnal.

SS7 and SSW7 have been used to measure those emphases from the standpoint of what is commanded when it is a comman or exhortation to a second party to render a service to a third party.

The following symbols were used in the study of the Christ of the hymnal and of the God of the hymnal:

ϕ	activity in heaven
χ	activity in general, but the world viewpoint not expressed.
ψ	activity with the world viewpoint expressed; world, all (world-wide), earth, every one, full (including everybody), the race, without end, man and mankind as such, thy children, creatures.
+	limited and individualistic
$\mathcal{S}o$	the Christ of the gospels in contrast with the Christ of the epistles.

The ek measures referring to God number 6008. Deducting these from the total, 7192, we have 1184 measures referring to our fellowmen. The total number of S measures minus the SS measures in commands as explained above are 1,455. Thus there is a rough harmony between these and the ek measures referring to fellowmen. This is what one would expect. Moreover, where the greatest number of measures referring to our fellowmen occur there the ek measures are the greatest, and where the least occur, there they are the fewest. That is, they harmonize with other measures having to do with the otherness of the hymnal. The same fact applies to the $\mathcal{X}$ and α measures. Deducting the service measures as in the case of ek from the total number of measures, 11, 335, we have 9967 measures. The total of $\mathcal{X}$ and α measures is 8,559, which clearly indicates the self-centered emphases of the hymnal. Therefore we conclude that tho the measures of the first group may be rough measures, nevertheless, they are true measures in that they indicate clearly the tendency of the hymnal; and hence do very well as a first approach.

We would see, Jesus, dying, risen, pleading;
Then welcome day, and farewell mortal night.

529 III 1
Farewell, ye dreams of night;

529 IV 1
Farewell, mortality;

Feel

My Lord, my Love, is crucified:

Is crucified for me and you,
To bring us rebels back to God:

In Christ a hearty welcome find.

258 II 4
And find my grace is free for all.

Find in Christ your all in all.

694 III 3-4
For sorrow's children comfort find,
And help for all distressed.

The spacious earth around,
While all the armies of the sky
Conspire to raise the sound.

640 I 2
Like the beams of morning fly,

679 III 1-4
Hosanna! on the wings of light
O'er earth and ocean fly
'Till morn to eve, and noon to night,
And heaven to earth reply.

You soon shall see his face.

433 I 4
And humbly follow after me.

433 IV 1
Take up thy cross and follow Christ;

193 II 8
Follow me, I'll guide thee home.

Forget

396 II 1-3, III 1 - IV 4

A cloud of witness around
Hold thee in full survey;
Forget the steps already trod,

'Tis God's all-animating voice
That calls thee from on high;
'Tis his own hand presents the prize
To thine aspiring eye;-

That prize, with peerless glories bright,
Which shall new luster boast,
When victor's wreaths and monarchs gems
Shall blend in common dust.

Forward

383 I 7

Forward into battle,

384 I 1-2; 5-6

Forward be our watchword,
Steps and voices joined;
Burns the fiery pillar
At our army's head:

384 I 9-12

Forward thru the desert; Jordan flows before us,
Thru the toil and fight: Zion beams with light!

384 II 1-4

Forward flock of Jesus,
Salt of all the earth,
'Till each yearning purpose
Spring to glorious birth.

384 II 9

Forward out of error,

384 II 11

Forward out of darkness,

384 II 12

Forward into light!

384 III 1-4; 9-12

Glories upon glories
Hath our God prepared,
By the souls that love him
One day to be shared:
Forward marching eastward
Where the heaven is bright,
'Till the veil be lifted
'Till our faith be sight.

Forward

384 IV 11-12
Pilgrims to your country,
Forward into light!

387 I 1-8
Go forward, Christian soldier,
Beneath his banner true:
The Lord himself, thy Leader,
Shall all thy foes subdue.
His love fortells thy trials;
He knows thine hourly need;
He can, with bread of heaven,
Thy fainting spirit feed.

387 II 1,
Go forward, Christian soldier,

387 III 1, 3-8
Go forward, Christian soldier,
'Till Satan's host is vanquished,
And heaven is all possessed;
'Till Christ himself shall call thee
To lay thine armor by,
And wear, in endless glory,
The crown of victory.

Gird

385 I 5-6
Seize your armor, gird it on;
Now the battle will be won;

429 II 3-4
Gird up your loins, as in his sight,
For awful is his name.

494 II 1
Gird thy heavenly armor on,

616 II 7
Gird thee for the battle,

Give

178 I 3
Mortals, give thanks

421 I 2
Give thanks

421 Ref. 2
Give thanks

Give

421 VIII 2
Give thanks

422 II 5-6
Give every flying minute
Something to keep in store:

437 I 1; 3-4

God hears thy sighs and counts thy tears;
God shall lift up thy head.

558 II 1
To Jesus name give thanks

560 I 3-4
Glory and praise to Jesus give,
For his redeeming grace

586 I 3-4
And give these sacred relics room
To slumber in the silent dust,

654 V 1
Give of thy sons to bear the message glorious;

654 V 2
Give of thy wealth to speed them on their way;

694 II 3
Give to the hungry from your board,

694 II 4
But all, give all to Christ.

694 III 2
Give to the weary rest;

694 IV 1-4
But give to Christ alone thy heart,
Thy faith, thy love supreme;
Then for his sake thine alms impart,
And so give all to him.

Go

180 III 1-3
Sinners, whose love can ne'er forget
The wormwood and the gall;
Go, spread your trophies at his feet

Go

255 III 3-4
Go to his bleeding feet, and learn
How freely Jesus can forgive.

261 IV 2-4
And on to glory go,
To dwell in that celestial land,
Where joys immortal flow.

382 III 1
From strength to strength go on,

399 I 1-3
Go, labor on,
It is the way the Saviour went;

399 II 1-4
Go, labor on; 'tis not for naught;
Thine earthly loss is heavenly gain;
Men heed thee, love, thee, praise thee not;
The Master praises, - what are men?

399 III 1-4
Go, labor on; your hands are weak;
Your knees are faint, your soul cast down;
Yet falter not; the prize you seek
Is near, - a kingdom and a crown!

412 IV 3-4
Tho opposed by many a foe,
Christian soldiers onward go.

640 I 1
Go ye messengers of God!

640 II 1-4
Go to many a tropic isle in the bosom of the deep,
Where the skies forever smile and the oppressed forever weep:

690 III 3-4
With words of high sustaining hope,
Go thou and comfort him.

690 IV 2-4
Perhaps thou canst redeem
A breaking heart from misery;
Go, share thy lot with him.

694 III 1-4
Go, clothe the naked, lead the blind,
Give to the weary rest;
For sorrow's children comfort find,
And help for all distressed.

Hasten

100 III 3
Haste to your heavenly Father's throne.

109 V 1
Hasten, mortals to adore him,

125 I 3
To Bethlehem hasten with joyful accord;

125 I 4
O hasten! O hasten! to worship the Lord.

125 II 3
To Bethlehem hasten with joyful accord

125 II 4
O hasten! O hasten! to worship the Lord.

125 III 3
To Bethlehem hasten with joyful accord,

125 III 4
O hasten! O hasten! to worship the Lord.

125 IV 3-4
True Godhead incarnate, Omnipotent Word!
O hasten! O hasten! to worship the Lord.

248 I 1, 3-4
Hasten, sinner, to be wise!
Wisdom if thou still despise,
Harder is it to be won.

248 II 1, 3-4
Hasten, mercy to implore!
Lest thy season should be o'er
Ere this evening stage be run.

248 III 1, 3-4
Hasten, sinner, to return!
Lest thy lamp should cease to burn
Ere salvation's work is done.

248 IV 1, 3-4
Hasten, sinner, to be blest!
Lest swift death should thee arrest
Ere the morrow is begun.

251 I 1 - III 4
Haste, traveler, haste! the night comes on,
And many a shining hour is gone;
The storm is gathering in the west,
And thou art far from home and rest.

Hail

179 I 7-8
And hail him as thy matchless King
Through all eternity!

180 II 1-3
Ye chosen seed of Israel's race,
Ye ransomed from the fall,
Hail him who saves you by his grace.

O far from home thy footsteps stray;
Christ is the life, and Christ the way,
And Christ the light; thy setting sun
Sinks ere thy morning is begun.

The rising tempest sweeps the sky;
The rains descend, the winds are high;
The waters swell, and death and fear
Beset thy path nor refuge near.

254 I 1- IV 4

While life prolongs its precious light,
Mercy is found, and peace is given;
But soon, ah soon, approaching night
Shall blot out every hope of heaven.

While God invites, how blest the day!
How sweet the gospel's charming sound!
Come sinners, haste, O haste away.
While yet a pardoning God is found.

Soon borne on time's most rapid wing,
Shall death command you to the grave,
Before his bar your spirits bring,
And none be found to hear or save.

In that lone land of deep despair
No sabbath's heavenly light shall rise,
No God regard your bitter prayer,
No Saviour call you to the sky.

257 II 1-4

Thou, who houseless, sole, forlorn,
Long hast borne the proud world's scorn,
Long hast roamed the barren waste
Weary pilgrim, hither haste.

390 I 1-4

Make haste, O man, to live,
For thou so soon must die!
Time hurries past thee like the breeze;
How swift its moments fly!

390 II 1-4

Make haste, O man, to do
Whatever must be done;
Thou hast no time to lose in sloth,
Thy day will soon be gone.

390 IV 1-2

Make haste, O man to live,
Thy time is almost o'er.

Hasten

458 IV 1-8

Haste thee on from grace to glory,
Armed by faith, and winged by prayer,
Heaven's eternal day's before thee,
God's own hand shall guide thee there.
Soon shall close thy earthly mission,
Swift shall pass thy pilgrim days,
Hope shall change to glad fruition,
Faith to sight, and prayer to praise.

623 I 5-8

Sun and moon and stars decay;
Time shall soon the earth remove;
Rise, my soul, and haste away
To seats prepared above.

652 III 5-6

Whosoever heareth
Speed the news along.

654 I 1-4

O Zion haste, thy mission high fulfilling
To tell to all the world that God is light;
That he who made all nations is not willing
One soul should perish lost in shades of night.

Hear

1 VI 1

Hear him, ye deaf,

157 III 1-2

The Lord is risen, indeed;
Attending angels, hear!

294 VI 1-2, 5

The news of heavenly grace;
The year of jubilee is come!

307 I 2

'Tis thy Saviour, hear his word;

494 III 1

Hear the victors who o'ercame.

494 IV 1-2

Hear above all these thy Lord,
Him thou lovest to obey.

588 I 1-2

Hear what the voice from heaven proclaims
For all the pious dead.

Help

171 IV 5,7-8

Help, ye bright angelic spirits;
Help to sing our Saviour's merits;
Help to chant Immanuel's praise.

Hope

316 IV 2
Hope still,and thou shalt sing

437 I 2-4
Hope;
God hears thy sighs, and counts thy tears;
God shall lift up thy head.

476 I 2-4
And hope in him whate'er betide;
Thou'll find him in the evil days,
Thine all-sufficient guide,

Join

24 IV 1-4
The whole creation join in one,
To bless the sacred name
Of him that sits upon the throne
And to adore the Lamb.

81 IV 5-6
I love his name, I love his word;
Join all my powers to praise the Lord!

111 I 6
Join the triumph of the skies;

157 IV 3-4
Join, all ye bright celestial choirs,
To sing our risen Lord.

160 III 3
Join, O man, the deathless voices,

261 IV 1
Come, then, and join this holy band,

383 V 2
Join our happy throng,

384 I 2
Steps and voices joined;

558 I 3
And join with us to praise his love,

652 III 7-8
Join with men and angels,
In salvation's song.

Lay

304 I 3-4
Lay down, thou weary one, lay down
Thy head upon my breast!

409 I 3-4
Lay hold on life, and it shall be
Thy joy and crown eternally.

Lean

409 III 1
Lean on thy guide;

468 I 2-4
Only lean upon his word;
Thou shalt soon have cause to bless
His eternal faithfulness.

468 IV 1-3
He will gird thee by his power,
In thy weary fainting hour
Lean then, loving, on his word;

Learn

109 V 2
Learn his name and taste his joy

246 V 4
And learn his will divine.

392 I 2-4
Learn what God is like;
And in the darkest battle field
Thou shalt know where to strike.

392 IV 1-4
Learn to scorn the praise of men,
And learn to lose with God;
For Jesus won the world thru shame,
And beckons thee his road.

570 II 2
Thy true condition learn:

Leave

113 III 1
Sages, leave your contemplations

Leave

236 II 7-8
O memory leave no other name
But his recorded there!

258 IV 1-2
Nothing ye in exchange shall give;
Leave all you have and are behind.

384 II 10
Leave behind the night.

445 II 3
Leave all to him, your Lord;

437 V 1-2
Leave to his sovereign sway
To choose and to command.

476 I 1
Leave God to order all thy ways.

Let

22 I 2
And let your joys be known.

22 II 1-2
Let those refuse to sing,
Who never knew our God.

107 I 2
Let earth receive her King.

249 IV 4
And let the heavenly Stranger in.

382 III 5-6
Still let the spirit cry
In all his soldiers, come.

402 III 6
Let his work your pleasure be.

405 I 2
Let every trembling thought be gone!

Let

429 II 1
Let all your lamps be bright.

437 III 1-3
Still heavy is thy heart?
Still sink thy spirits down?
Cast off the weight, let fear depart,

458 II 1-2
Let the world despise and leave me
They have left my Saviour, too;

618 I 7-8
Fling open wide the golden gates
And let the Victor in

634 III 6
Let it ring across the mountains and the ocean's foam,

639 I 1-2
Fling out the banner! let it float
Skyward and seaward, high and wide;

639 V 1-2
Fling out the banner! Let it float
Shyward and seaward, high and wide,

639 VI 1-2
Fling out the banner! wide and high,
Seaward and skyward let it shine.

Lift

15 III 5
Lift up your heads, ye heavenly gates;

15 III 7
Lift up your heads,for you he waits.

44 II 1
Lift up thyself, my heart,

90 I 1
The Lord is King! lift up thy voice,

158 I 7
Lift up yours heads, ye heavenly gates!

158 III 3
Lift up your heads, ye heavenly gates;

159 I 1-8
Lift your glad voices in triumph on high,
For Jesus hath risen,and man cannot die;

Lift

Vain were the terrors that gathered around him,
And short the dominion of death and the grave;
He burst from the fetters of darkness that bound him,
Resplendent in glory to live and to save!
Loud was the chorus of angels on high,
The Saviour hath risen, and man shall not die.

160 III 1-2, 4

Life eternal! heaven rejoices,
Jesus lives who once was dead;
Child of God, lift up thy head!

162 II 2

Lift your heads, eternal gates;

172 II 3-4

Lift up your heart, lift up your voice,
To him who rules above.

178 I 5

Lift up your heart, lift up your voice;

178 II 5

Lift up your heart, lift up your voice;

178 III 5

Lift up your heart, lift up your voice;

178 IV 5

Lift up your heart, lift up your voice;

178 V 5

Lift up your heart, lift up your voice;

226 IV 3-4

Lift o'er our ranks the prophet's rod,
While we uphold thy hands with prayer.

383 II 5-7

Hell's foundations quiver
At the shout of praise;
Brothers, lift your voices,

386 I 3-8

Lift high his royal banner,
It must not suffer loss:
From victory unto victory
His army shall he lead,
Till every foe is vanquished
And Christ is Lord indeed.

Lift

409 II 2-4

Lift up thine eyes, and seek his face;
Life with its way before us lies,
Christ is the path and Christ the prize.

421 II 1-2, VI 1

Bright youth, and snow-crowned age,
Strong men and maidens meek;

Still lift your standards high.

558 I 1-2

Lift up your hearts to things above,
Ye followers of the Lamb.

697 I 5

Lift up the fallen.

Look

110 IV 1-6

And ye, beneath life's crushing load,
Whose forms are bending low,
Who toil along the climbing way
With painful steps and slow,
Look now! for glad and golden hours
Come swiftly on the wing.

152 II 3-4

Ah! look how patiently he hangs;
Jesus, our Lord, is crucified.

169 I 1

Look, ye saints, the sight is glorious.

Look

183 II 1-2
Look how we grovel here below,
Fond of these earthly toys;

217 III 3-4
Look up, thy broken heart prepare,
And God shall set the captive free.

304 III 2-4
I am this dark world's light;
Look unto me, thy morn shall rise,
And all thy day be bright!

432 I 1-3, 5-6
Come on, my partners in distress,
My comrades thru the wilderness,
Who still your bodies feel;
And look beyond this veil of tears,
To that celestial hill.

432 II 1-3
Beyond the bounds of time and space,
Look forward to that heavenly place,
The saints secure abode;

513 III 1-3
Some will hate thee, some will love thee,
Some will flatter, some will slight;
Look above thee,

Mourn

152 I 1
O come and mourn with me a while;

698 I 1-2
Mourn for the thousands slain,
The youthful and the strong;

698 I 3-4
Mourn for the winecup's fearful reign
And the deluded throng.

698 II 1-4
Mourn for the ruined soul -
Eternal life and light
Lost by the fiery maddening bowl,
And turned to hopeless night.

698 III 1
Mourn for the lost;

698 IV 1
Mourn for the lost

Make

90 IV 1-4

Come, make your wants and burdens known,
He will present them at the throne;
And angel bands are waiting there
His messages of love to bear.

257 I 2

Make my path your choice.

260 I 4

And make this last resolve:

652 I 3-4

With your glad hosannas
Make the morning ring;

Onward

383 I 1-6

Onward, christian soldiers!
Marching as to war,
With the cross of Jesus
Going on before.
Christ, the royal Master,
Leads against the foe;

383 Ref. 1-4

Onward, christian soldiers,
Marching as to war,
With the cross of Jesus,
Going on before.

383 II 1-4

At the sign of triumph
Satan's host doth flee;
On,then, christian soldiers,
On to victory.

383 III 1 - V 1

Like a mighty army
Moves the church of God;
Brothers, we are treading
Where the saints have trod;
We are not divided,
All one body we,
One in hope and doctrine,
One in charity.

Crowns and thrones may perish,
Kingdoms rise and wane,
But the church of Jesus
Constant will remain;
Gates of hell can never
'Gainst that church prevail;
We have Christ's own promise,
And that cannot fail.

Onward, then, ye people!

Onward

384 IV 1-11

Far o'er yon horizon
Rise the city towers,
Where our God abideth;
That fair home is ours:
Flash the streets with jasper,
Shine the gates with gold;
Flows the gladdening river
Shedding joys untold;
Thither, onward, thither,
In the Spirit's might:
Pilgrims to your country,

385 III 1-2

Onward, then, ye hosts of God!
Jesus points the victor's rod;

396 II 1-2, 4; III 1 - IV 4

A cloud of witnesses around
Hold thee in full survey;
Onward urge thy way.

'Tis God's all-animating voice
That calls thee from on high;
'Tis his own hand presents the prize
To thine aspiring eye:-

That prize, with peerless glories bright,
Which shall new luster boast,
When victors' wreaths and monarchs gems
Shall blend in common dust.

412 I 1-2

Oft in danger, oft in woe,
Onward, Christians, onward go;

412 IV 1-4

Onward, then, in battle move,
More than conquerors ye shall prove;
Tho opposed by many a foe
Christian soldiers, onward go.

421 II 1-2; V 1-4

Bright youth, and snow-crowned age,
Strong men and maidens meek:

Yes, on thru life's long path!
Still chanting as ye go;
From youth to age, by night and day,
In gladness and in woe.

421 VIII 1

Then on, ye pure in heart.

427 IV 3-4

Onward

427 IV 3-4
Press onward to that blest estate,
In righteousness complete.

623 II 2-8
Press onward to the prize;
Soon our Saviour will return
Triumphant in the skies:
Yet a season, and you know
Happy entrance will be given;
All our sorrows left below;
And earth exchanged for heaven.

Peal

420 Ref. 1,3
Peal out the watchword! silence it never!
Peal out the watchword! loyal forever!

Perish

513 II 1-2
Perish policy and cunning,
Perish all that fears the light

Praise

1 VI 1-2
His praise, ye dumb,
Your losened tongues employ;

3 I 1,3-4
Sound his praise abroad,
Jehovah is the sovereign God,
The universal King.

4 I 1-6
The God of Abraham praise,
Who reigns enthroned above,
Ancient of everlasting days,
And God of love;
Jehovah, great I Am,
By earth and heaven confessed;

4 II 1-4
The God of Abraham praise,
At whose supreme command
From earth I rise, and seek the joys
At his right hand:

Praise

5 IV 4
Fill the world with loudest praise

15 V 3, 5-6
His praise prolong;
Worthy the Lamb for sinners slain,
From angels praise and thanks from men;

16 I 3
His praise forthtell

16 III 1
O enter, then his gates with praise.

16 III 3
Praise his name always,

19 I 7
Praise the mount - I'm fixed upon it -

20 I 1-4
Praise ye Jehovah! praise the Lord most holy,
Who cheers the contrite, girds with strength the weak;
Praise him who will with glory crown the lowly,
And with salvation beautify the meek.

20 II 1-4
Praise ye Jehovah! for his loving kindness,
And all the tender mercy he hath shown;
Praise him who pardons all our sin and blindness,
And calls us sons, and takes us for his own.

20 III 1-4
Praise, ye Jehovah! source of all our blessings;
Before his gifts earth's richest boons wax dim;
Resting in him, his peace and joy possessing
All things are ours, for we have all in him.

20 IV 1-4
Praise, ye the Father! God, the Lord, who gave us
With full and perfect love, his only Son;
Praise ye the Son! who died himself to save us;
Praise ye the Spirit! praise the Three in One!

21 III 3-4
And saints on earth with saints above,
Your voices in his praise employ.

23 I 1-2
Come, O my soul, in sacred lays,
Attempt thy great Creator's praise.

23 IV 3-4
And let his praise employ thy tongue,
Till listening worlds shall join the song.

Praise

85 I 7-8
Sounded thru the wide creation
Be thy just and awful praise.

85 IV 1-4
From the highest throne of glory,
To the cross of deepest woe;
Thou didst come to ransom sinners:
Flow, my praise, forever flow.

90 II 1-4
The Lord is King! child of the dust,
The Judge of all the earth is just;
Holy and true are all his ways;
Let every creature speak his praise.

94 I 1 - IV 4; VI 1-4
My soul, repeat his praise,
His mercies are so great;
Whose anger is so slow to rise,
So ready to abate.

High as the heavens are raised
Above the ground we tread,
So far the riches of his grace
Our highest thots exceed.

His power subdues our sins;
And his forgiving love,
Far as the east is from the west,
Doth all our guilt remove.

The pity of the Lord
To those that fear his name
Is such as tender parents feel;
He knows our feeble frame.

But thy compassions, Lord,
To endless years endure;
And children's children ever find
Thy words of promise sure.

169 III 4
Praise his name:

421 II 1-2, 4
Bright youth and snow-crowned age,
Strong men and maidens meek:
God's wondrous praises speak!

512 II 2
And now show forth his praise.

597 III 6
Praise be thy new employ;

Praise

649 I 1-2
Praise the Saviour, all ye nations,
Praise him all ye hosts above;

652 I 7
Crown him with your praises,

Pray

382 III 2
Wrestle and fight and pray;

390 III 4
Up, watch, and work, and pray!

464 III 1-4
But here's a voice above me
Which says, wait, trust, and pray;
The night will soon be over,
And light will come with day.

476 III 1-6, IV 1
He knows when joyful hours are best,
He sends them as he sees it meet,
When thou hast borne the fiery test,
And now art freed from all deceit
He comes to thee all unaware,
And makes thee own his loving care.

Pray,

493 II 1
Pray

494 I 3-4
Thou art in the midst of foes
Pray

494 II 3-4
Near thee lurks the evil one;
Pray

494 III 3-4
All with one deep voice exclaim,
Pray

494 IV 4
Pray.

494 V 3-4
Pray that help may be sent down;
Pray

502 II 3

Pray

502 III 2-3
Tho thot be broken, language lame,
Pray, if thou canst or canst not speak;

512 I 1-4
To God your every want
In instant prayer display:
Pray always,; pray and never faint;
Pray without ceasing,pray.

512 III 4
And pray for Zion's peace.

512 IV 3-4
Extend the arms of mighty prayer
In grasping all mankind.

Pray

654 V 3-4
Pour out thy soul for them in prayer victorious
And all thou spendest Jesus will repay.

698 IV 1-4
Pray,

To break the fell destroyer's sway
And show his saving love.

His saving grace proclaim,

The Saviour's love proclaim,
Till all the world take up the strain
And send the echo back again.

The sovereign of your hearts proclaim,

111 I 7-8
With angelic hosts proclaim
Christ is born in Bethlehem.

113 I 3-4
Ye who sang creation's story
Now proclaim Messiah's birth:

121 II 5-6
O morning stars together
Proclaim the holy birth,

294 III 3-4
Redemption thru his blood
Thruout the world proclaim:

654 IV 1-2
Proclaim to every people, tongue and nation
That God; in whom they live and move is love:

655 III 5-8
Salvation! O salvation!
The joyful sound proclaim
Till earth's remotest nation
Has learned Messiah's name.

Prohibitions

No more let sin and sorrow grow,
Nor thorns infest the ground;
He comes to make his blessing flow
Far as the curse is found.

115 II 1-2
Fear not; said he, for mighty dread
Had seized their troubled mind,

217 I 2
No longer in thy sins lie down

217 IV 4
Nor bear his hallowed name in vain.

Prohibitions

230 II 2
Nor scorn their humble name;

248 I 2-4
Stay not for the morrow's sun;
Wisdom if thou still despise
Harder is it to be won.

248 II 2-4
Stay not for the morrow's sun
Lest thy season should be o'er
Ere this evening stage be run.

248 III 2-4
Stay not for the morrow's sun
Lest thy lamp should cease to burn
Ere salvation's work is done.

248 IV 2-4
Stay not for the morrow's sun,
Best swift death should thee arrest
Ere the morrow is begun.

251 IV 1
Linger not in all the plain,

251 IV 3
Look not behind, make no delay.

255 IV 3
'Tis God who says, no longer mourn;

259 III 1-4
Let not conscience make youlinger,
Nor of fitness fondly dream;
All the fitness he requireth
Is to feel your need of him:

301 III 6
Nor let that ransomed sinner die!

384 I 4
Not a look behind;

386 III 7-8
Where duty calls or danger,
Be never wanting there.

Far more are o'er thee watching
Than human eyes can know.

Cease not to watch and pray;
Heed not the treacherous voices,
That lure thy soul astray.

387 III 2-8
Nor dream of peaceful rest,
Till Satan's host is vanquished,
And heaven is all posessed;
Till Christ himself shall call thee
To lay thine armor by,
And wear, in endless glory,
The crown of victory.

389 I 3
To doubt and fear give thou no heed.

390 IV 3-4
O sleep not, dream not, but arise,
The judge is at the door!

392 I 1
Workmen of God! O lose not heart,

399 III 1-4
Your hands are weak;
Your knees are faint, your soul cast down;
Yet falter not: the prize you seek
Is near, - a kingdom and a crown!

402 III 1-4
Let none hear you idly saying,
There is nothing I can do,
While the souls of men are dying,
And the Master calls for you.

407 II 2-3
Say not the days are evil - who's to blame?
And fold the hands and acquiesce -

407 III 4
Faint not, tomorrow comes the song.

409 IV 1-2
Faint not nor fear his arms are near;
He changeth not and thou art dear;

Nor think the battle long,

412 III 1-2
Let not sorrow dim your eye,
Soon shall every tear be dry;

427 IV 2
Faint not, O faltering feet:

433 II 1-2
Take up thy cross; let not its weight
Fill thy weak spirit with alarm;

Take up thy cross, nor heed the shame;
Nor let thy foolish pride rebel;
Thy Lord for thee the cross endured,
To save thy soul from death and hell.

For only he who bears the cross
May hope to wear the glorious crown.

Who madly seeks your overthrow;
Dread not his rage and power.

445 II 1
Fear not, be strong! your cause belongs
To him who can avenge your wrongs.

456 IV 1 - V 4
Nor let the good man's trust depart,
Tho life its common gifts deny,
Tho with a pierced and broken heart,
And spurned of men, he goes to die.

For God has marked each sorrowing day,
And numbered every secret tear;
And heaven's long age of bliss shall pay
For all his children suffer here.

461 III 1 -
Fear not, I am with thee, O be not dismayed,
For I am thy God, and will still give thee aid;
I'll strengthen thee, help thee, and cause thee to stand,
Upheld by my righteous, omnipotent hand.

461 IV 1 - VII 4

When thru the deep waters I call thee to go,
The rivers of woe shall not thee overflow;
For I will be with thee, thy troubles to bless,
And sanctify to thee thy deepest distress,

When thru fiery trials thy pathway shall lie,
My grace, all-sufficient, shall be thy supply,
The flame shall not hurt thee,;I only design
Thy dross to consume, and thy gold to refine,

E'en down to old age all my people shall prove
My sovereign, eternal, unchangable love;
And when hoary hairs shall their temples adorn
Like lambs they shall still in my bosom be borne.

The soul that on Jesus still leans for repose
I will not, I will not desert to his foes;
That soul, tho all hell should endeavor to shake,
I'll never, no never, no never forsake!

Return, O wanderer, return,
His pitying eyes thy grief discern,
His hand shall heal thine inward smart.

255 III 1-2

Return, O wanderer, return;
Thy Saviour bids thy spirit live;

255 IV 1, 3-4

Return, O wanderer, return,
'Tis God who says, no longer mourn;
'Tis mercy's voice invites thee near.

70 I 1-4

Another six days' work is done
Another Sabbath is begun:
Return, my soul, enjoy the rest
Improve the day thy God hath blest.

Return

258 II 3
Return, ye weary wanderers home.

The year of jubilee is come!
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

The year of jubilee is come!
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

294 III 5-6
The year of jubilee is come!
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

294 IV 5-6
The year of jubilee is come!
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

294 V 5-6
The year of jubilee is come!
Return, yeransomed sinners, home.

294 VI 5-6
The year of jubilee is come!
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

Rise

44 I 3-4
Shake off dull sloth, and joyful rise
To pay thy morning sacrifice.

111 I 5
Joyful,all ye nations rise,

217 II 3-4
Arise,
The great Deliverer calls, arise!

249 IV 1
Rise touched with gratitude divine,

262 I 6
Rise into the life of God.

262 II 5
Rise, exalted by his fall,

289 I 3-4
Arise, ye needy, he'll relieve;
Arise, ye guilty, he'll forgive.

Arise

301 I 1 - III 6

Arise, my soul, arise;
The bleeding sacrifice
In my behalf appears;
Before the throne my Surety stands,
My name is written on his hands.

He ever lives above,
For me to intercede;
His all redeeming love,
His precious blood, to plead;
His blood atoned for all our race,
And spinkles now the throne of grace.

Five bleeding wounds he bears,
Received on Calvary;
They pour effectual prayers,
They strongly plead for me:
"Forgive him, O forgive," they cry,
"Nor let that ransomed sinner die!"

382 I 1, 3-8

Soldiers of Christ, arise,
Strong in the strength which God supplies
Thru his eternal Son;

385 I 1-4

Soldiers of the cross, arise!
Lo! your Leader from the skies,
Waves before you glory's prize,
The prize of victory.

386 II 7

Your courage rise with danger,

404 I 1

Rise, O my soul,

413 II 1

Arise,

432 I 1-3; II 4

My partners in distress,
My comrades thru the wilderness,
Who still your bodies feel;
On faith's strong eagle pinions rise,

623 I 1-7; II 1-8

Rise, my soul,
Thy better portion trace;
Rise from transitory things
Toward heaven, thy native place:
Sun, and moon, and stars decay;
Time shall soon this earth remove;
Rise, my soul,

Rivers to the ocean run,
Nor stay in all their course;
Fire ascending seeks the sun;
Both speed them to their sourse;
So a soul that's born of God,
Pants to view his glorious face;
Upward tends to his abode,
To rest in his embrace.

Roll

655 IV 1-8
Waft, waft, ye winds, his story,
And you, ye waters, roll,
Till, like a sea of glory,
It spreads from pole to pole:
Till o'er our ransomed nature
The Lamb for sinners, slain,
Redeemer, King, Creator,
In bliss returns to reign.

Run

44 I 1-2
With the sun
Thy daily stage of duty run;

405 I 3
Run the heavenly race,

409 II 1, 3-4
Run the straight race thru God's good grace,
Life with its way before us lies,
Christ is the path, and Christ the prize.

Say

153 II 4
And say, was ever grief like his?

165 V 1-2
Say, "Live forever, wondrous King!
Born to redeem, and strong to save;"

307 I 4
" Say, poor sinner, lov'st thou me?

See

125 I 2
See in the manger in the angels' dread King!

141 III 1-2
See, from his head, his hands, his feet
Sorrow and love flow mingled down!

153 II 3
Sinners, see your Saviour die,

169 I 2
See the man of sorrows now;

177 I 5
See he sits on yonder throne;

See

230 I 1-2
See Israel's gentle Shepherd stand
With all engaging charms;

256 V 1-2
See him set forth before your eyes,
That precious, bleeding sacrifice!

258 III 1
See from the rock a fountain rise!

383 I 8
See his banners go

385 I 7
See the strife will soon be done;

526 III 1-2
Here, see the bread of life; see waters flowing
Forth from the throne of God, pure from above;

633 I 1-3
From all the dark places
Of earth's heathen races,
O see how the think shadows fly!

636 I 3-4
Traveler; o'er yon mountain height
See that glory beaming star!

649 II 1-8
See how beauteous on the mountains
Are their feet, whose grand design
Is to guide us to the fountains
That o'erflow with bliss divine,
Who proclaim the joyful tidings
Of salvation all around,
Disregard the world's deridings
And in works of love abound.

653 II 1-8
See heathen nations bending
Before the God we love,
And thousand hearts ascending
In gratitude above:
While sinners, now confessing,
The gospel call obey,
And seek the Saviour blessing,
A nation in a day.

Seek

113 III 3-4
Seek the great Desire of nations;
Ye have seen his natal star:

255 I 2
And seek an injured Father's face;

255 II 2
And seek a Father's melting heart;

384 I 3
Seek the things before us,

409 II 2
Seek his face;

570 III 1,3-4
Behold, another year begins!
Seek pardon for thy former sins,
In Christ so freely given.

Shake

44 I 3
Shake off dull sloth,

217 II 1-2
Shake off the dust that blinds thy sight,
And hides the promise from thine eyes;

217 III 1
Shake off the bands of sad despair;

301 I 2 - III 6
Shake off thy guilty fears;
The bleeding Sacrifice
In my behalf appears:
Before the throne my Surety stands,
My name is written on his hands.

He ever lives above,
For me to intercede;
His all-redeeming love,
His precious blood to plead;
His Blood atoned for all our race,
And sprinkles now the throne of grace.

Five bleeding wounds he bears,
Received on Calvary;
They pour effectual prayers,
They strongly plead for me:
"Forgive him, O forgive," they cry,
"Nor let that ransomed sinner die!"

All people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice;

Blend with ours your voices
In the triumph-song!

Bright youth, and snow-crowned age,
Strong men and maidens meek:

His the scepter, his the throne
Hallelujah! his the triumph
His the victory alone:

Till morning's joy shall end the night of weeping,
And life's long shadows break in cloudless love.

711 I 1-2
Swell the anthem, raise the song,
Praises to our God belong;

717 I 2-6
Raise the song of harvest home:
All is safely gathered in,
Ere the winter storms begin;
God, our Maker, doth provide
For our wants to be supplied:

717 I 8
Raise the song of harvest home.

Sound

3 I 1
Sound his praise abroad,

679 II 1, 3-4
Hosanna! sound from hill to hill,
While louder, sweeter, clearer still,
Woods echo to the strain

Speak

89 I 2-4
And speak some boundless thing,
The mighty works or mightier name
Of our eternal King.

Their triumphant Lord and ours,
Conqueror over death and sin,
Take the King of glory in!

217 I 1, 3

Jerusalem,
The garment of salvation take,

382 II 3-8

But take, to arm you for the fight,
The panoply of God:
That, having all things done,
And all your conflicts passed,
Ye may o'ercome thru Christ alone,
And stand entire at last.

Child of sorrow and of woe;

It will joy and comfort with you;
Take it, then, where'er you go.

Trust

96 IV 2

But trust him for his grace;

100 I 1-2, 4; II 1-4

How gentle God's commands!
How kind his precepts are!

Place on the Lord reliance;
His love thy joy increase;

But there's a voice above me
Which says, "Trust,
The night will soon be over,
And light will come with day."

Weary souls, that wander wide
From the central point of bliss,
Turn to Jesus crucified,

Up

This is no time for thee to sleep,
Up.

616 I 5

Christian! up.

Wait

57 I 1-5

Day is dying in the west;
Heaven is touching earth with rest:
Wait and worship while the night
Sets her evening lamps alight
Thru all the sky,

99 I 1-4, IV 1-4, V 2

The Lord our God is clothed with might,
The winds obey his will;
He speaks, and in his heavenly height
The rolling sun stands still.

His voice sublime is heard afar;
In distant peals it dies;
He yokes the whirlwind to his car,
And sweeps the howling skies.

Ye monarchs, wait his nod;

427 IV 1
Then, O my soul, in silence wait;

429 I 1-4
Ye servants of the Lord,
Each in his office wait,
Observant of his heavenly word,
And watchful at his gate.

Thru waves, and clouds, and storms,
He gently clears thy way;
Wait thou his time, so shall this night
Soon end in joyous day.

My soul, with courage wait;
His might thy heart shall strengthen,
His love thy joy increase;
Mercy thy days shall lengthen
The Lord will give thee peace

But there's a voice above me
Which says, "Wait,"

476 II 2-4
And wait in cheerful hope, content
To take whate'er his gracious will
His all-discerning love hath sent;

515 IV 1-2
Then, my soul, in every strait
To thy Father come and wait;

Walk

361 I 1-4
Walk in the light! so shalt thou know
That fellowship of love
His Spirit only can bestow
Who reigns in light above.

361 II 1-4
Walk in the light! And thou shalt find
Thy heart made truly his
Who dwells in cloudless light enshrined,
In whom no darkness is.

361 III 1-4
Walk in the light! and thou shalt own
Thy darkness passed away,
Because that light hath on thee shown
In which is perfect day.

Walk

361 IV 1-4
Walk in the light! and e'en the tomb
No fearful shade shall wear;
Glory shall chase away its gloom,
For Christ hath conquered there.

361 V 1-4
Walk in the light! thy path shall be
A path, tho thorny, bright;
For God, by grace, shall dwell in thee,
And God himself is light.

Your glorious banner wave on high,
The cross of Christ, your King.

Your glorious banner wave on high,
The cross of Christ, your King!

640 I 1, 4
Ye messengers of God!
Wave the banner cross on high:

640 I 5-8
Where the lofty mineret
Gleams along the morning skies,
Wave it till the crescent set
And the Star of Jacob rise!

Welcome

64 I 1-4
Welcome, sweet day of rest,
That saw the Lord arise;
Welcome to this reviving breast,
And these rejoicing eyes!

We would see Jesus, dying, risen, pleading;
Then welcome day,

Work;

390 III 3-4
This is no time for thee to sleep,
Work,

399 I 1-4
Labor on,
Thy joy to do the Father's will;
It is the way the Master went;
Should not the servant tread it still?

399 II 1-4
Labor on; 'tis not for naught;
Thine earthly loss is heavenly gain;
Men heed thee, love thee, praise thee not;
The Master praises, - what are men?

Work

399 III 1-4

Labor on; your hands are weak;
Your knees are faint, your soul cast down;
Yet falter not; the prize you seek
Is near, - a kingdom and a crown!

421 VI 3-4

As warriors thru the darkness toil
Till dawns the golden day!

422 I 1-8

Work,for the night is coming,
Work thru the morning hours;
Work, while the dew is sparkling,
Work mid springing flowers;
Work when the day grows brighter,
Work in the glowing sun;
Work, for the night is coming,
When man's work is done.

422 II 1-4, 7-8

Work for the night is coming,
Work thru the sunny noon;
Fill brightest hours with labor
Rest comes sure and soon.
Work for the night is coming,
When man works no more.

422 III 1-8

Work for the night is coming,
Under the sunset skies;
While their bright tints are glowing,
Work for daylight flies.
Work till the last beam fadeth,
Fadeth to shine no more;
Work while the night is darkening,
When man's work is o'er.

1 VI 4
And leap,ye lame,for joy.

3 IV 1
Today attend his voice,

596 IV 2
Attend, O earth! his sovereign word:

3 IV 4
And own your gracious God.

169 III 4
Own his title,

6 I 3
Know that the Lord is God alone,

9 I 4
His glory let the heathen know,

294 I 2-4
The gladly solemn sound
Let all the nations know,
To earth' s remotest bound,

9 I 5
His wonders to the nations show,

16 I 3
Him serve with fear,

386 II 5-6
Ye that are men,now serve him,
Against unnumbered foes.

16 III 3
Laud, and bless his name always,

21 III 1
Burn every breast with Jesus' love;

21 IV 2-4
Ascend for him our cheerful strain;
Worship and thanks to him belong,
Who reigns, and shall forever reign.

22 I 2
And let your joys be known;

70 I 1-4
Another six days work is done;
Another Sabbath is begun,
My soul, enjoy thy rest,
Improve the day thy God hath blest.

85 III 7
Break my tongue such guilty silence

Miscellaneous

85 IV 4
Flow,my praise, forever flow!

85 IV 5
Reascend, immortal Saviour;

89 II 2
And sound his power abroad;

90 III 1-4
He reigns! ye saints, exalt your strains;
Your God is King, your Father reigns;
And he is at the Father's side,
The Man of Love, the Crucified.

99 II 1-2
Rebel, ye waves, and o'er the land
With threatening aspect roar;

113 I 1-2
Angels, from the realms of glory,
Wing your flight o'er all the earth;

114 I 1-2
Brightest and best of the sons of the morning,
Dawn on our darkness and lend us thine aid;

114 I 3-4
Star of the East, the horizon adorning,
Guide where our infant Redeemer is laid.

114 V 1-2
Brightest and best of the sons of the morning,
Dawn on our darkness and lend us thine aid;

114 V 3-4
Star of the East, the horizon adorning,
Guide where our infant Redeemer is laid.

157 IV 2
Strike each cheerful chord;

158 I 5-6, 8
There his triumphal chariot waits,
And angels chant the solemn lay:
Ye everlasting doors give way!

158 II 1-3
Loose all your bars of massy light,
And wide unfold the ethereal scene;
He claimsthese mansions as his right;

161 III 5
Wider yon portals throw,

162 II 3
Wide unfold the radiant scene;

Miscellaneous

169 II 3
In the seat of power enthrone him,

169 III 3
Saints and angels crowd around him,

172 III 2
Kiss the exalted Son,

178 I 4
Triumph ever more;

180 IV 1-3
Let every kindred, every tribe
On this terrestrial ball,
To him all majesty ascribe,

206 II 6
Away with praise of men!

217 II 3
Struggle into light,

217 III 2
Zion, assert thy liberty;

230 II 1
"Permit them to approach, " he cries,

240 II 5
Hush,

240 IV 2
Drink the wine,

246 I 1-4
Sinners, the voice of God regard;
'Tis mercy speaks today;
He calls you by his sacred word
From sin's destrustive way.

255 IV 2-3
And wipe away the falling tear;
'Tis God who says, " No longer mourn;"

256 V 3
His offered benefits embrace,

256 V 4
And freely now be saved by grace.

258 I 1-2
Every one that thirsts draw nigh
'Tis God invites the fallen race:

Miscellaneous

258 II 2
Sinners, obey your Maker's call;
386 II 2
The trumpet call obey;

259 II 2
God's free bounty glorify;

261 II 3-4
Plunge now into the crimson flood
That washes white as snow.

262 I 5
Sink into the purple flood;

284 III 1-4
The while I fain would tread the heavenly way,
Evil is ever with me day by day;
Yet on mine ear the gracious tidings fall,
"Repent, confess, thou shalt be loosed from all."

285 I 1-4
Approach, my soul, the mercy-seat,
Where Jesus answers prayer;
There humbly fall before his feet,
For none can perish there.

289 II 1-2
Ask but his grace, and lo, 'tis given!
Ask, and he turns your hell to heaven:

294 IV 3-5
And safe in Jesus dwell,
And blest in Jesus live:
The year of jubilee is come!

304 II 4
Live!

294 VI 3-5
And, saved from earth, appear
Before your Saviour's face:
The year of jubilee is come!

429 III 4
And ready all appear

301 III 5
"Forgive him, O forgive," they cry.

304 II 4
Stoop down,

382 III 2
Wrestle,

386 II 3-4
Forth to the mighty conflict,
In this his glorious day:

Miscellaneous

386 II 8
And strength to strength oppose.

389 I 1
Sow in the morn thy seed;

389 I 4
Broadcast it o'er the land.

399 I 1-4
Spend and be spent,
Thy joy to do the Father's will;
It is the way the Master went;
Should not the servant tread it still?

404 I 3-4
Aspiring view those holy men
Who lived and walked with God.

412 I 3
Maintain the strife

413 II 2
Wash thy sins away:

413 IV 1-2
In God's whole armor strong,
Front hell's embattled powers:

413 I 2
Thy high allegiance claim,

413 I 3-4
And vow to hold the world but loss
For thy Redeemer's name.

429 II 2
Trim the golden flame

429 III 3
Mark the first signal of his hand,

432 II 5
And force your passage to the skies,

432 II 6
And scale the mount of God.

433 I 3
Deny thyself, the world forsake,

435 IV 3
To him commend thy cause;

447 VI 1-2
Hold on thy way, with hope unchilled,
By faith and not by sight,

Miscellaneous

468 III 2
Linger at his mercy-seat:

478 III 3-4
Thy voice of love, in gentlest tones,
Still whispers, " Cling to me! "

493 II 3
Renew it boldly every day,

494 II 2
Wear it ever night and day;

494 IV 3
Hide within thy heart his word.

502 IV 1
Depend on him; thou canst not fail;

508 II 3-4
If temptations round you gather,
Breathe that holy name in prayer.

512 II 2
Now show forth his praise;

513 II 5-6
Shun all forms of guilty passion,
Fiends can look like angels bright;

570 III 2
Set out afresh for heaven;

570 IV 1-2
Devoutly yield thyself to God,
And on his grace depend;

586 I 1
Unveil thy bosom,faithful tomb,

586 IV 3
Restore thy trust;

595 IV 4
Ye saints ascend the skies!

597 I 3-4
The battle fought, the victory won,
Enter thy Master's joy

616 I 5-8
Christian smite them,
Counting gain but loss;
In the strength that cometh
By the holy cross.

Miscellaneous

616 II 8

Fast!

616 III 5-8

Christian! answer boldly:
"While I breatheI pray! "
Peace shall follow battle,
Night shall end in day.

636 III 6

Hiethee to thy quiet home!

640 II 7

Chase away their dark despair,

640 III 1-3

Where the golden gates of day
Open on the palmy East,
Wide the bleeding cross display,

640 III 6

Visit every soil and sea:

640 III 7

Preach the cross of Christ to all,

655 IV 1-4

Waft, waft, ye winds his story,
And you, ye waters, roll,
Till, like a sea of glory,
It spreads from pole to pole.

690 II 3-4

O enter thou his humble door
With aid and peace for him.

690 III 1-4

He who drinks the cup
When sorrow drowns the brim;
With words of high, sustaining hope,
Go thou and comfort him.

690 IV 1-4

Pass no mourner by;
Perhaps thou canst redeem
A breaking heart from misery;
Share thy lot with him.

694 III 1

Clothe the naked, lead the blind,

694 IV 3

Then for his sake thine alms impart.

697 I 3-4

Snatch them in pity from sin and the grave;
Weep o'er the erring one,

697 II 4-6

Plead with them earnestly,
Plead with them gently:
He will forgive if they only believe.

Miscellaneous

697 IV 4-5

Back to the narrow way
Patiently win them;

698 III 3-4

Rouse them to shun that dreadful fall,
And to the refuge flee.

699 I 1

Think gently of the erring one;

699 IV 3-4

Deal gently with the erring heart,
As God hath dealt with thee.

702 III 7

The sound prolong.

32 I-VIII 3,6

When morning guilds the skies,
My heart awaking cries,
May Jesus Christ be praised!
Alike at work and prayer,
To Jesus I repair;
May Jesus Christ be praised.

Whene'er The sweet chruch bell
Peals over hill and dell,
May Jesus Christ be praised!
O hark to what it sings,
As joyously it rings,
May Jesus Christ be praised!

My tongue shall never tire
Of chanting with the choir,
May Jesus Christ be praised!
This song of sacred joy
It never seems to cloy,
May Jesus Christ be praised!

Praise

When sleep her balm denies,
My silent spirit sighs,
May Jesus Christ be praised!
When evil thoughts molest,
With this I shield my breast,
May Jesus Christ be praised!

Does sadness fill my mind?
A solace here I find,
May Jesus Christ be praised!
Or fades my earthly bliss?
My comfort still is this,
May Jesus Christ be praised!

The night becomes as day,
When from the heart we say,
May Jesus Christ be praised!
The powers of darkness fear,
When this sweet chant they hear,
May Jesus Christ be praised!

In Heaven's eternal bliss
The liveliest strain is this,
May Jesus Christ be praised!
Let earth, and sea, and sky,
From depth to height reply,
May Jesus Christ be praised!

Be this, while life is mine,
My canticle divine,
May Jesus Christ be praised!
Be this the eternal song
Through ages all along,
May Jesus Christ be praised!

44 III 1-2

All praise to thee,who safe hast kept,
And hast refreshed me while I slept.

Praise be to thee through Jesus our salvation,

Lord everlasting.

Lay down the burden and the care.

191 III 1-2

O that the world might know
The all-atoning Lamb.

289 III 3-4

Awake, ye nations under ground;
Ye saints, ascend the skies!

663 IV 1-4

And in that great decisive day,
When God the nations shall survey,
May it before the world appear
That crowds were born to glory here.

Jesus(On earth)

682 I 1-8

I think when I read that sweet story of old,
When Jesus was here among men,
How he called little children as lambs to his fold,
I should have liked to have been with him then.
I wish that his hands had been placed on my head,
That his arms had been thrown around me,
That I might have seen his kind look when he said,
Let the little ones come unto me.

O may this bounteous God,
Through all our life be near us.

314 II 1-2
O may my heart,by grace renewed,
Be my Redeemer's throne.

When heated in the chase,
So longs my soul, O God, for thee.

316 II 1-2
For thee, my God, the living God,
My thirsty soul doth pine.

We would see Jesus; for the shadows lengthen
Across this little landscape of our life;

For the last weariness,the final strife.

323 II 1-2
We would see Jesus, the great rock of foundation
Whereon our feet were set with sovereign grace.

Which for long years we have rejoiced to see,
The blessings of our pilgrimage are failing.

323 IV 1
We would see Jesus; yet the spirit lingers.

His own "All hail!" and, hearing,
May raise the victor-strain.

354 IV 3

And storms of sorrow fall,
May I but safely reach my home
My God,my heaven,my all.

True hearted, whole hearted, fullest allegiance,
Yielding henceforth to our glorious King,
Valiant endeavor, loving obedience,
Freely and joyously now would we bring.

God (nearer)

315 II 1-6

Though like the wanderer,
The sun gone down,
Darkness be over me,
My rest a stone,
Yet in my dreams I'd be
Nearer, my God, to thee.

315 II 1-5-7

Though like the wanderer,
The sun gone down,
Darkness be over me,
My rest a stone,
Yet in my dreams I'd be
Nearer to thee.

God(To be with)

525 I 1-2

Still with thee O my God
I would desire to be.

525 I 3-4

By day, by night, at home, abroad,
I would be still with thee.

525 I 2-II 1-4

I would desire to be;
With thee when dawn comes in
And calls me back to care
Each day returning to begin,
With thee, my God, in prayer.

525 I 2--III 1-3

I would desire to be,
With thee amid the crowd
That throngs the busy mart
To hear thy voice, when time's is loud.

525 1-2-IV 1-2

I would desire to be:
With thee when day is done,
And evenings calms the mind;

525 VI 3-4

By day, by night, in life, in death,
I would be still with thee.

Learn

381 IV 1

Fain would I learn of thee, my God.

Learn

381 IV 1 V 1
Fain would I learn of thee, my God
I would, but thou must give the power.

589 VI 2
I fain would learn the new and holy song.

Live

336 IV 1-2
'Tis to my Savior I would live,
To him who for my ransom died.

342 III 1
Thine would I live, thine would I die.

Make Mine

140 II 1-4
Such was thy truth, and such thy zeal,
Such deference to thy Father's will,
Such love and meekness so divine
I would transcribe and make them mine.

Negative

300 I 4
I would not be controlled

336 III 1
I would not sigh for worldly joy.

336 III 2
Or to increase my worldly good.

336 III 3-4
Nor future days nor powers employ
To spread a sounding name abroad.

465 III 1-4
I would not have the restless will
That hurries to and fro
Seeking for some great thing to do
Or secret thing to know.

465 VI 5
More careful, not to serve thee much,
But please thee perfectly.

Negative

520 I 1-4
Not only when ascends the songs
And soundth sweet the word;
Not only midst the Sabbath throng,
Oursouls would seek the Lord.

520 III 1-2
We would not to our daily task
Without our God repair.

527 I 6
I would not if I might;

581 III 1-2-4
O if my Lord would come and meet
My soul would stretch her wings in hast
Nor feel the terrors as she passed.

584 I 1
I would not live alway.

584 I 2
I ask not to stay

595 II 3-4
Nor should we wish the hours more slow,
To keep us from our Love.

Prove

381 IV 2-4
Thy light and easy burden prove,
The cross, all stained with hallowed blood
The labor of thy dying love.

381 IV 2-4 V 1
Thy light and easy burden prove,
The cross, all stained with hallowed blood
The labor of thy dying love.
I would, but thou must give the power.

Reap

395 III 1-4
Where prophets' word and martyrs' blood
And prayers of saints were sown.
We, to their labors enteringin,
Would reap where they have strown.

Renew

232 III 3-4
And would renew its solemn vow,
With love, with thanks, with praises, now.

See

323 I 1-2
We would see Jesus; for the shadows lengthen,
Across this little landscape of our life.

323 I 3-4
We would see Jesus, our weak faith to strength,
For the last weariness, the final strife.

323 II 1-2
We would see Jesus, the great rock foundation
Whereon our feet were set with sovereign grace.

323 III 1-2-3
We would see Jesus; other lights are paling,
Whichfor long years we have rejoiced to see,
The blessings of our pilgrimage are failing.

323 IV 1-3
We would see Jesus; yet the spirit lingers
Round the dear objects it has loved so long,
And earth from earth can scarce unclasp its fingers.

323 V 1-2
We would see Jesus sense is all too binding
And heaven appears too dim, too far away.

323 V 3-4
We would see thee, thyself our hearts reminding
What thou hast suffered, our great debt to pay.

323 VI 1-2
We would see Jesus; this is all we're needing,
Strength, joy, and willingness come with the sight.

323 VI 3-4
We would see Jesus. dying, risen, pleading;
Then welcome day, and farewell mortal night.

329 III 1-2
Trusting only in thy merit,
Would I seek thy face.

520 V 1-2
When on thy glorious works we gaze,
There thee we fain would see.

Sing

540 II 1-6
I'd sing the precious blood he spilt
My ransom from the dreadful guilt,
Of sin, and wrath divine;
I'd sing his glorious righteousness,
In which all-perfect, heavenly dress
My soul shall ever shine.

540 III 1-3
I'd sing the characters he bears
And all the forms of love he wears
Exulted on his throne.

Transcribe

140 II 1-4
Such was thy truth, and such thy zeal,
Such deference to thy Father's will,
Such love and meekness so divine,
I would transcribe and make them mine.

Miscellaneous

Free from care, from labor free,
Lord, we would commune with thee.

138 II 1-4
Dear son of God! thy blessed will,
Our hearts would own, with saints above,
All life is larger for thy law,
All service sweeter for thy love.

342 I 4
And own thy sovereign right in me.

237 I 2
Here would I touch and handle things unseen.

540 I 4
I'd soar and touch the heavenly strings.

Miscellaneous

Here grasp with firmer hand eternal grace.

Here drink with thee the royal wine of heaven.

237 II 3

Here would I lay aside each earthly load.

237 II 4

Here taste afresh the calm of sin forgiven.

We would not mourn them, for we go to thee.

339 V 1-2

Yes,! I would count them all but loss,
To gain the notice of thine eye.

342 III 1

Thine would I live, thine would I die,

349 I 3-4

Nor should I aught withhold,
Dear Lord, from thee.

349 I 5

In love my soul would bow.

Thee we would be always blessing.

355 III 6
Serve thee as thy hosts above.

355 III 7
Pray, and praise thee without ceasing.

355 III 8
Glory in thy perfect love.

358 IV 3
My heart would now receive thee, Lord.

377 III 2
I would be by myself abhorred.

438 III 4
And would make thy promise mine.

465 III 5
I would be treated as a child.

465 III 6
And guided where I go.

465 VI 1-4
And if some things I do not ask
Among the blessings be,
I'd have my spirit filled the more,
With greatful love to thee;

465 VI 6
But please thee perfectly.

483 V 1,3-4
So would I love thee, dearest Lord
Solely because thou art my God,
And my eternal King.

517 II 2
To thee my thoughts would soar.

Miscellaneous

520 III 3
But in the world thy presence ask.

520 III 4
And seek thy glory there.

520 V 3-4
Our gladness in their beauty raise,
O God, to joy in thee!

521 III 1-4
What though in lonely grief I sigh,
For friends beloved no longer nigh,
Submissive still would I reply,
"Thy will be done!"

524 I 3-4
Into thy hand of love
I would my all resign.

525 IV 3-4
The setting as the rising sun,
With thee my heart would find.

525 V 1-4
With thee when darkness brings,
The signal of repose,
Calm in the shadow of thy wing,
Mine eyelids I would close.

525 VI 1-2
With thee, in thee, by faith,
Abiding, I would be.

535 IV 1-4
My soul would leave this heavy clay,
At that transporting word,
Run up with joy the shining way,
To see and praise my Lord.

535 V 1-2
Fearless of hell and ghastly death,
I'd break through every foe.

535 V 3-4
The wings of love and arms of faith,
Would bear me conquerer through.

540 I 5-6
And vie with Gabriel while he sings
In notes almost divine.

Miscellaneous

540 III 4-6
In loftiest praise of sweetest song
I would to everlasting days,
Make all his glories known.

581 III 1-3
O if my Lord would come and meet,
My sould would stretch her wings in haste
Fly fearless through death's iron gate.

589 VI 3-4
And find at last, beneath thy trees of healing,
The life for which I long.

Account

153 III 4-6 IV 3

Ye all are bought with Jesus's blood.
Pardoned for all flows from his side,
My Lord, my Love, is crucified,
All things for him account but loss.

Adore

II III 3 IV 1

The praises of Jesus the angels proclaim
Fall down on their faces, and worship the Lamb.
Then let us adore, and give him his rights.

167 II 2-4

The church adore around;
With vials full of odors sweet,
And harps of sweetest sounds.

310 II 5

'Tis mercy all! let earth adore.

694 I 1 II 1-3

She loved her Savior, and to him
Her costliest present brought,
To crown his head, or grace his name,
No gift too rare she thought
Solet the Savior be adored.

Agree

565 I 1;3-6

Let earth and heaven agree,
Angels and men be joined,
To celebrate with me
The Savior of mankind;
T'adore the all atoning Lamb,
And bless the sound of Jesus' name.

Ascend

227 IV 1 - V 4

O let our heart and mind
Continually ascend,
That haven of repose to find,
Where all our labors end.

Where all our toils are o'er,
Our suffering and our pain!
Who meet on that eternal shore
Shall never part again.

Be

22 VIII 2

And every tear be dry.

Be

164 III 1-7-8
Now let the heavens be joyful!
For Christ, the Lord,hath risen,
Our joy that hath no end.

240 I 3-4
Let the "Little while" between
In their golden light be seen.

253 IV 2-4
O! be it still pursued
L est, slighted once, the season fair
Should never be renewed.

256 I 2-4
Let every soul be J esus' guest
Ye need not one be left behind
For God hath bidden all mankind.

521 II 1-2
Though dark my path, and sad my lot,
Let me be still and murmur not.

573 IV 5-6
And let our consecration
Be real, and deep, and true.

649 I 5
Be his kingdom now promoted,

649 I 7-8
Be my all to him devoted .
To my Lord my all I owe.

Blend

164 III 5-8
Invisable and visable,
Their notes let all things blend,
For Chri st the Lord hath risen,
Our joy that hath no end.

Bless

Let all on earth 9 I133 II 1-6
(And) bless his holy name
He framed the globe he built the sky;
He made the shining worlds on high
And reigns in glory there:
His beams are majesty and light
His beauties how divinely bright,
H is dwelling place how fair.

Boast

560 III 1-V 4

What troubles have we seen,
What conflicts have we passed,
Fightings without, and fears within,
Since we assembled last!

But out of all the Lord
Hath brought us by his love;
And still he doth his help afford,
And hides our life above.

Then let us make our boast
Of his redeeming power,
Which saves us to the uttermost,
Till we can sin no more.

Bound

21 II 1-4, III 2

His sovereign power our bodies made
Our souls are his immortal breath;
And when his creatures sinned, he bled
To save us frm eternal death.
Bound every heart with rapturous joy.

Bring

631 I 1--IV 4, V 1-2

Jesus shall reign where'er the sun
Does his successive journey's run;
His kingdom spread from shore to shore,
Till moon shall wax and wane no more.

From morth to south the princes meet
To pay their homage at his feet;
While western empires own their Lord,
And savage tribes attend his word.

To him shall endless prayer be made,
And endless praises crown his head;
His name like sweet perfume shall rise
With every morning sacrifice.

People and realms of every tongue
Dwell on his love with sweetest song,
And infant voices shall proclaim,
Their early blessings on his name.

Let every creature rise and bring
Peculiar honors to our King.

Our souls are his immortal breath;
And when his creatures sinned, he bled,
To save us from eternal death.
Burn every breast with Jesus love.

Ye are all bought with Jesus' blood,
Pardon for all flows from his side,
My Lord, my Love, is crucified,
(And)gladly catch the healing stream.

Cease.
591 II 3--IV 2

Gladly to earth their eyes they close,
To open them in heaven
Their toils are past, their work is done,
And they are fully blest;
They fought the fight, the victory won
And entered into rest.
Then let our sorrows cease to flow,
God has recalled his own.

602 I 1-2

Christ is coming! let creation
Bid her groans and travails cease.

Cry
11 II 1-III 2

God ruleth on high almighty to save;
And still he is nigh; his presence we have
The great congregation his triumph shall sing,
Ascribing salvation to Jesus, our King.
"Salvation to God, who sits on the throne,"
Let all cry aloud, and honor the Son.

Descend
631 I 1--IV 4 V 3

Jesus shall reign where'er the sun
Does his successive journey's run,
His kingdom spread from shore to shore
Till moon shall wax and wane no more.

From north to south the Princes meet
To pay their homage at his feet;
While western empires own their Lord,
And savage tribes attend his word.

To him shall endless prayer be made,
And endless praise crown his head;
His name like sweet perfume shall rise,
With every morning sacrifice/

631 I 1--IV 4 V 3 cont.

People and realms of every tongue,
Dwell on his love with sweetest song,
And infant voices shall proclaim,
Their early blessings on his name,
Angels descend with songs again.

Employ

107 II 2-4

Let men their songs employ;
While fields and floods, rocks, hills and plains,
Repeat the sounding joy.

Fulfill

568 I 4--II 1-6

His adorable will let us gladly fulfill,
And our talents improve,
By the patience of hope, and the labor of love,
By the patience of hope, and the labor of love.

Our life is a dream; our time, as a stream,
Glides swiftly away,
And the fugitive moment refuses to stay,
The arrow is flown, the moment is gone,
The millennial year
Rushed on to our view, and eternity's here.

Give

11 III 3--IV 3

The praises of Jesus the angels proclaim,
Fall down on their faces, and worship the Lamb.

Then let us adore, and give him his right,
All the glory and power, all wisdom and might,
All honor and blessing with angels above.

All honor and blessing, with angels above,
And thanks never ceasing, for infinite love.

36 I 3-II 1-4
To him with joyful voices give, the glory of his grace
He now stands knocking at the door
Of every sinner's heart:
The worst need keep him out no more,
Nor force him to depart.

153 III 4-6-IV 1-4
Ye all are bought with Jesus' blood;
Pardon for all flows from his side;
My Lord, my Love is crucified.
Then let us sit beneath his cross,
And gladly catch the healing stream;
All things for him account but loss,
And give up all our hearts to him.

569 II 1-2
Give up ourselves, through Jesus' power,
His name to glorify.

Go

63 IV 3-4
And in our Lord rejoicing go,
To his eternal joy.

Go
101 IV 5-6

Let goods and kindred go,
This mortal life also.

227 II 3--III 4

And following our triumphant Head,
To further conquest go!
The vineyard of the Lord,
Before his laborers lies;
And lo! we see the vast reward
Which wait us in the skies.

Hasten
63 II 1-4--III 2-4

This is the day which God hath blest,
The brightest of the seven
Type of that everlasting rest,
The saints enjoy in heaven.
(And) hasten to that day
When our Redeemer shall come down.

63 II 1-4--III 2-4

This is the day which God hath blest,
The brightest of the seven
Type of that everlasting rest,
The saints enjoy in heaven.
(And) hasten to that day,
When (our Redeemer shall come down,)
(And) shadows pass away.

344 VI 5-8

Leaving all behind us,
May we hasten on,
Backward never looking,
Till the prize is won.

Honor
11 II 1-4, III 2

God ruleth on high, almighty to save;
And still he is nigh; his presence we have:
The great congregation his triumph shall sing,
Ascribing salvation to Jesus, our King.
Let all cry aloud and honor the Son:

Improve
568 I 5-6 II 1-6

And our talents improve,
By the patience of hope, and the labor of love,
Our life is a dream; our time as a stream,
Glides swiftly away,
And the fugitive moment refuses to stay.
The arrow is flown, the moment is gone;
The millennial year
Rushes on to our view, and eternity's here.

Join

63 I 1-4
Come let us join with one accord,
In hymns around the throne!
This is the day our rising Lord,
Hath made and called his own .

565 I 2-6
Angels and men be joined,
To celebrate with me,
The Savior of mankind;
T'adore the all atoning Lamb,
And bless the sound of Jesus' name.

569 I 2-4
And all, with one accord,
In a perpetual covenant join,
Ourselves to Christ the Lord.

611 I 1-2
Come let us join our friends above,
That have obtained the prize.

649 III 5-8
While the heralds of salvation,
His abounding grace proclaim,
Let his friends, of every station,
Gladly join to spread his fame.

711 II 5-7
Hark! the voice of nature sing,
Praises to the King of kings,
Let us join thechoral song,
And the greatful notes prolong.

Keep

164 III 3-4 VII 8
Let the round world keep triumph,
And all that is therein!
For Christ the Lord hath risen,
Our joy that hath no end.

Learn

92 II 2
From them let us learn to trust for our bread.

686 V 1-4
And let those learn, who here shall meet,
True wisdom is with reverence crowned
And science walks with humble feet,
To seek the God that faith hath found.

Mount

594 I 6, II 1--III 8

(And) mount with his spirit above.

Our brother the haven hath gained,
Outflying the tempest and wind;
His rest he hath sooner obtained,
And left his companions behind,
Still tossed on a sea of distress,
Hard toiling to make the blest shore,
Where all is assurance and peace,
And sorrow and sin are no more.

There all the ship's company meet,
Who sailed with the Saviour beneath;
With shouting each other they greet,
And triumph o'er sorrow and death;
The voyage of life's at an end;
The mortal affliction is past;
The age that in heaven they spend,
Foreverand ever shall last.

Mourn

152 I 3-4
O come together let us mourn;
Jesus, our Lord, is crucified.

241 II 1-2
O that we all might now begin,
Our foolishness to mourn.

Negatives

308 I 1
Let not the wise their wisdom boast.

308 I 2 II 1-2
The mighty glory in their might,
The rush of numerous years bears down,
The most gigantic strength of man,

308 I 3-4
The rich in flattering riches trust,
Which take their everlasting flight.

486 IV 1-4
Let us press on in patient self-denial,
Accept the hardship, shrink not from the loss,
Our portion lies beyond the hour of trial,
Our crown beyond the cross.

521 II 1-2
Tho dark my path and sad my lot,
Let me be still and murmur not.

568 I 3 II 1-6
And never stand still till the Master appear,
Our life is a dream; our time as a stream,
Glides swiftly away,
And the fugitive moment refuses to stay,
The arrow has flown, the moment is gone;
The millenial year
Rushes on to our view, and eternity's here.

694 II 2
And not the poor despised.

699 I 2--II 4
O let us not forget,
However darkly stained by sin,
He is our brother yet!
Heir of the same inheritance,
Child of the selfsame God,
He hath but stumbled in the path
We have in weakness trod.

711 II 2-3
May we cheerfully obey;
Never feel oppression's rod.

Praise

5 I 2,4
Let the Creator' s praise arise;
Through every land, by every tongue.

32 I 1-3
When morning the gilds the skies,
My heart awaking cries,
May Jesus Christ be praised!

32 I 4-6
Alike at work and prayer,
To Jesus I repair;
May J esus Christ be praised.

32 II 1-3
When e'er the sweet church bell
Peals over hill and dell,
May Jesus Christ be praised.

32 II 6
May Jesus Christ be praised.

32 III 1-3
My tongue shall never tire
Of chanting with the choir
May Jesus Christ be praised.

32 III 6
May Jesus Christ be praised.

32 IV 1-3
When sleep her balm denies
My silent spirit sighs,
May Jesus Christ be praised!

32 IV 4-6
When evil thoughts molest,
With this I shield my breast,
May Jesus Christ be praised!

32 V 1-3
Does saddness fill my mind?
A solace here I find,
May Jesus Christ be praised!

32 V 4-6
Or fades my earthly bliss?
My comfort still is this,
May Jesus Christ be praised!

Praise

32 VI 1-3

The night becomes as day
When from the heart we say,
May Jesus Christ be praised!

32 VI 4-6

The powers of darkness fear,
When this sweet chant they hear,
May Jesus Christ be praised!

32 VII 1-3

In heaven's eternal bliss,
The loveliest strain is this,
May Jesus Christ be praised.

32 VII 4-6

Let earth, and sea, and sky,
From depths to height reply,
May Jesus Christ be praised.

32 VIII 1-3

Be this, while life is mine,
My canticle divine,
May Jesus Christ be praised.

32 VIII 4-6

Be this the eternal song,
Through ages all along,
May Jesus Christ be praised.

36 I 1-2-II 1-4

Come, let us who in Christ believe,
Our common Savior praise;
To him with joyful voices give
The glory of his grace.

184 IV 2-3

Let all who Christ confess,
His praise employ.

He now stands knocking at the door
Of every sinner's heart;
The worst need keep him out no more,
Nor force him to depart.

Pursue

568 I 1 II 1-6

Come let us anew our journey pursue,
Our life is a dream; our time as a stream.
Glides swiftly away,
And the fugitive moment refuses to stay.
The arrow is flown, the moment is gone;
The millenial year
Rushes onto our view, and eternity's here.

Reckon

560 III 1-IV 4, VI 3-4

What troubles have we seen,
What conflicts have we passed,
Fightings without, and fears within,
Since we assembled last!
But out of all the Lord
Hath brought us by his love;
And still he doth his help afford,
And hides our life above,
(And) gladly reckon all things loss
So we may Jesus gain.

Repeat

631 I 1- IV 4, V 4

Jesus shall reign where e'er the sun
Does his successive journeys run
His kingdom spread from shore to shore,
Till moons shall wax and wane no more.
From north to south the Princes meet
To pay their homage at his feet;
For western empires owned their Lord,
Savage tribes attend his word.
To Him shall endless prayer be made,
And endless praises crown his head;
His name like sweet perfume shall rise
With every morning sacrifice.
People and realms of every tongue,
Dwell on his love with sweetest song,
And infant voices shall proclaim
Their early blessings on his name,
(And) earth repeat the loud Amen.

Rise

46 I 1-2, II 1 - III 4

Now from the altar of my heart
Let incense flames arise
This day God was my Sun and Shield,
My Keeper and my Guide,;
His care was on my frailty shown,
His mercies multiplied,
Minutes and mercies multiplied,
Have made up all this day;
Minutes came quick, but mercies were
More fleet and free than they.

119 III 2

And sweet let the gladsome hosanna arise.

Rise

543 II 1-5
In simple trust like theres who heard,
Beside the Syrian sea,
The gracious callingof the Lord,
Let us, like them, without a word
Rise up and follow thee.

611 I 3-4
And on the eagle wings of love,
To joys celestial rise.

631 I 1-V 1
Jesus shall reign where e'er the sun,
Does his successive journey run
His kingdom spread from shore to shore,
Till moons shall wax and wane no more,
From north to souththe Princes meet,
To pay their homage at his feet;
While western empires owned their Lord,
And savage tribes attend his word,
To him shall endless prayer be made
And endless praises crown his head.
His name like sweet perfume shall rise,
With every morning sacrifice,
People and realms of every tongue
Dwell on his love with sweetest song,
And infant voices shall proclaim,
Their early blessings on his name.
Let every creature rise and bring,

Roll Round

568 I 2 , II 1-6
Roll round with the year,
Our life is a dream; our time as a stream,
Glides swiftly away,
And the fugitive moment refuses to stay.
The arrow is flown, the moment is gone;
The millennial year
Rushes on to our view and eternity's here.

Sing

5 I 3-4
Let the Redeemer's name be sung,
Through every land, by every tongue.

8 IV 1,3-4
With them let us our voices raise
Salvation well deserves the praise,
Of men and angels too.

Sing

8 IV 2-4
Salvation well deserves the praise
Of man and angels too.

9 I 1-2 II 1-6
Let all on earth their voices raise,
To sing the great Jehovah's praise,
He framed the globe; he built the sky;
He made the shining worlds on high,
And reigns in glory there:
His beams are majesty and light;
His beauties how divinely bright.
His dwelling place, how fair.

21 I 1,3-4
Come let us tune our loftiest song
Worship and thanks to him belong,
Who reigns and shall forever reign.

21 I 2-4
And raise to Christ our joyful strain,
Worship and thanks to him belong.
Whoreigns and shall forever reign.

24 I 1-4
Come let us join our cheerful song with angels round the throne
Ten thousand thousand are their tongues,
But all their joys are one,
But all their joys are one.

63 II 1-III 1
This is the day which God hath blest,
The brightest of the seven,
Type of that everlasting rest,
The saints enjoy in heaven. Then let us in his name sing on.

63 IV 1-2
Notone, but all our days below,
Let us in hymns employ.

164 III 2,7-8
Let earth her song begin!
For Christ the Lord hath risen,
Our joy that hath no end.

547 I 1-4
Children of the heavenly King,
As we journey let us sing,
Sing our Savior's worthy praise,
Glorious in his works and ways.

Sing

573 I 1-4-II 1-III 8

From glory unto glory!
Be this our joyous song;
As on the King's own highway,
We bravely march along,
The fullness of his blessing
Encompasseth our way;
The fullness of his promises
Crowns every brightening day,
The fullness of his glory,
Is beaming from above,
While more and more we learn to know,
The fullness of his love.
And closer yet and closer,
The golden bonds shall be,
Uniting all who love our Lord,
In pure sincerity;
And wider yet and wider
Shall the circling glory glow,
As more and more are taught of God,
That mighty love to know.

602 III 1,3-4

With that blessed hope before us,
Let the mighty advent chorus
Onward roll from tongue to tongue.

611 I 5-II 8

Let all the saints terestrial sing,
With those to glory gone;
For all the servants of our King,
In earth and heaven, are one.

One family we dwell in him,
One church, above, beneath,
Though now divided by the stream,
The narrow stream, of death:
One army of the living God,
To his command we bow;
Part of his host have crossed the flood,
And part are crossing now.

679 I 3-4

His praise, to whom our souls belong,
Let all the children sing.

Sing

679 IV 1-4

Hosanna! then, our songs shall be;
Hosanna to our King!
This is the children's jubilee;
L et all the children sing.

Sit

153 III 4-IV 1

Ye all are bought with Jesus' blood:
Pardon for all flows from his side:
My Lord, my Love, is crucified.
Then let us sit beneath his cross.

Speak

153 III 4-6-IV 5

Ye all are bought with Jesus' blood,
Pardon for all flows from his side:
My Lord, my Love, is crucified.
Of nothing think or speak beside.

Stir Up

558 IV 1-4

O let us stir each other up,
Our faith by works to approve,
By holy, purifying hope
And the sweet task of love.

Take Up

373 I 1-4

L et him to whom we now belong,
His sovereign right assert,
And take up every thankful song,
And every loving heart.

560 III 1-IV 4 VI 1-2

What troubles have we seen,
What conflicts have we passed,
Fightings without, and fears within,
Since we assembled we last!
But out of all the Lord,
Hath brought us by his love;
And still he doth his help afford,
And hides our life above.
Let us take up the cross,
Till we the crown obtain.

Tell

236 I 1-7-8

If human kindness meets return,
And owns the grateful tie;
If tender thoughts within us burn,
To feel a friend is nigh;
O shall not warmer accents tell,
The gratitude we owe
To Him who died, our fears to quell,
Our more than orphans woe!

Think

153 III 4-6, IV 5

Ye all are bought with Jesus' blood;
Pardon for all flows from his side;
My Lord, my Love, is crucified,
Of nothing think or speak beside.

240 I 5-6

Let us think how heaven and home,
Lie beyond that "Till he come,"

Worship

167 II 1, 3-4

Let elders worship at his feet,
With vials full of odors sweet
And harps of sweetest sound.

711 II 2-4

May we cheerfully obey;
Ever own and worship God.

Miscellaneous

69 I 1-4

Safely through another week,
God has brought us on our way;
Let us now a blessing seek,
Waiting in his courts today.

70 IV 1-2

In holy duties let the day,
In holy comforts pass away.

119 III 4

One chorus resound through the earth and the skies.

Miscellaneous

152 I 3-4
O come, together let us mourn,
Jesus, our Lord, is crucified.

180 I 2
Let angels prostrate fall.

227 II 1-2, III 1-4
O let us still proceed
In Jesus' work below,
The vineyard's of the Lord
Before his laborers lies;
And lo we see the vast reward
Which waits us in the skies.

240 I 1-2
Till he come, O let the words
Linger on the trembling cords.

241 II 1-4
O that we all might now begin
Our foolishness to mourn,
And turn at once from every sin,
And to the Saviour turn.

256 IV 3
O let his love your hearts constrain.

276 I 3-4
Let floods of penitential grief,
Burst forth from every eye.

310 II 6
Let angel minds inquire no more.

486 IV 1, 3-4
Let us press on, in patient self-denial,
Our portion lies beyond the hour of trial,
Our crown beyond the cross.

521 II 1-2
Though dark my path, and sad my lot,
Let me be still and murmur not.

Miscellaneous

521 II 1,3-4
Though dark my path, and sad my lot,
Or breathethe prayer divinely taught,
"Thy will be done!"

543 II 1-5
In simple trust like there's who heard,
Beside the Syrian sea,
The gracious calling of the Lord,
Let us, like them, without a word,
Rise up and follow thee.

554 IV 1-2
Let love, in one delightful stream,
Through every bosom flow.

554 IV 3-4
And union sweet, and dear esteem,
In every action glow.

569 I 1
Come let us use the grace divine.

569 II 3-4
And promise, in this sacred hour,
For God to live and die.

573 IV 1-4
O let our adoration
For all that he hath done,
Peal our beyond the stars of God,
While voice and life are one.

591 IV 3-4
But let our hearts, in every woe,
Still say, "Thy will be done."

602 III 1-2
With that blessed hope before us,
Let no harp remain unstrung.

646 I 7-8
Hallelujah! let the word,
Echo round the earth and main.

649 I 6
Let the earth her monarch know.

Miscellaneous

702 I 4-7
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the Pilgrim's pride,
From every mountain side,
Let freedom ring.

711 II 1-2
Here, beneath a virtuous sway,
May we cheerfully obey.

711 II 2-4
May we cheerfully obey;
Ever own and worship God.

711 II 8
And the greatful notes prolong.
